GENERAL INFORMATION CONCERNING MARRIAGE ARRANGEMENTS

1. The bridal couple must arrange for at least two interviews with the Rabbi. The first interview should be arranged at the earliest opportunity. It is strongly suggested that no arrangements for the wedding be finalised until after this interview. IN ALL EVENTS THE RABBI MUST BE CONSULTED BEFORE A DATE AND TIME FOR THE ACTUAL MARRIAGE CEREMONY CAN BE FINALISED AND CONFIRMED.
2. * The reception must not be booked without prior consultation with the Rabbi as there are times in the calendar when music is not permitted at a reception.
3. A rehearsal of the wedding may be held two weeks prior to the wedding date.
4. Arrangements concerning the Rabbi's presence at or participation at the Reception following the ceremony must be confirmed with the Rabbi at the first interview or as soon as possible thereafter. It should not be assumed that the Rabbi would automatically be available to be present at the Reception.
5. The importance of arranging a kosher reception following such a meaningful and Jewish occasion as a wedding ceremony cannot be over-emphasised. The Rabbi cannot, of course, attend any function which is not under Orthodox Rabbinical Kosher supervision.
6. The Rabbi will not officiate at a wedding when the Chuppah is at the same place and at the same time as a non-kosher function.
7. As part of the traditional preparation for the wedding, the bride is expected to attend the Mikvah. Please call Rebbetzin Riesenbergs on 9505 4553.
8. Please bring the following original documents and a photocopy to the first interview:
 - i. The Hebrew marriage certificate (Ketubah) of the natural parents of both bride and groom. If this is not available please provide information that you are Halachically Orthodox Jewish.
 - ii. Where either the bride or groom, or their parents, are not of Jewish birth, evidence of conversion to Judaism (Gerut) is needed.
 - iii. Where either bride or groom was previously married, details of previous marriage(s), number and ages of any children from previous marriage(s) and official evidence of death, or civil and religious divorces, is required.
 - iv. The full birth certificate of both bride and groom showing names of natural parents.
 - v. The passports of both bride and groom.
 - vi. The citizenship papers of both bride and groom
 - vii. In cases where any of the requested documentation or information is not readily available, the Rabbi's advice should be sought at the earliest opportunity.

We agree to abide by the above terms, conditions and rules of Central Shule, and directions of the Rabbi.
